9.5.1	An Appeals Committee shall operate in accordance with the Guidelines for Appeals Committees, a copy of which is available in the Branch office.
9.5.2	A right of final appeal, in respect to decisions from the Appeals Committee relating to the International Laws of Badminton or National Rules and Codes of Conduct, may be made to Badminton Union of Ireland Ltd.
9.5.3	Any suspension or penalty shall not come into force until a ruling is made on the appeal unless there are circumstances where there would be danger of further serious offence or damage to other members or to the Branch.
9.6	The Executive Committee shall have the power to impose a penalty on any member, player, club, league, county association that does not comply with the rules and regulations of any authorised Branch competition.
9.6.1	These penalties shall include reprimand, fine, and exclusion.
9.7	The Branch shall notify forthwith the Badminton Union of Ireland Ltd. in writing of any disciplinary action whatsoever taken against any member or club.
10. GENERAL

THE RULES OF THE LEINSTER BRANCH, Badminton Union of Ireland

10.

The Trustees, Council, Executive Committee, Sub-Committees of the Executive Committee and all persons duly authorised to act on behalf of the said Trustees, Council, Executive Committee and Sub-Committees shall be indemnified to the extent of the assets and property of the Branch against all and any liabilities, expenses, actions, claims, costs, damages and demands incurred or occasioned in good faith by them or any of them in pursuance of their authorised activities on behalf of the Branch.

10.1

The Executive Committee shall have power to prohibit the playing of matches on such dates as it may from time to time determine.

10.2

If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Branch there remains, after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Branch. Instead, such property shall be given or transferred to some other body or bodies having main objects similar to the main objects of the Branch. The body or bodies to which the property is to be given or transferred shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property among its or their members to an extent at least as great as is imposed on the Branch under or virtue of Clause 10.3 hereof. Members of the Branch shall select the relevant body or bodies at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provisions, then the property shall be given or transferred to some charitable object.

10.3

The income and property of the Branch shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its main objects as set forth in these Rules. No portion of the Branch's income and property shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit, to the members of the Branch. No Officer shall be appointed to office of the Branch paid by salary or fees, or receive any remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth from the Branch. However, nothing shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Branch of:

- a) Reasonable of proper remuneration to any member of the Branch (not being an officer) for any services rendered to the Branch
- b) Interest at a rate not exceeding 5% per annum on money lent by officers or other members of the Branch to the Branch.
- c) Reasonable and proper rent for premises demised and let by any member of the Branch (including any officer) to the Branch.
- d) Reasonable and proper out of pocket expenses incurred by any officer in connection with their attendance to any matter affecting the Branch.
- e) Fees, remuneration or other benefit in money or money's worth to any company of which an officer may be a member holding not more than one hundredth part of the issued capital of such company.

End
